

Moving Dates FAQ

When Will I Be Moving?

The building work will take place on a phase by phase basis meaning people living in Dollis Valley will be moving at different times dependant upon where their current home is located. These phases can be seen below, however, if you are unable to understand the map please contact Jane Davis who will be able to explain which phase you are in.

The estimated dates of when phases will be are as follows:

Phase 1: October 2013 to August 2015

Phase 2: January 2015 to December 2016

Phase 3: April 2016 to December 2017

Phase 4: January 2017 to January 2019

Phase 5: April 2018 to February 2020

The phase you are in is determined by the area you are currently living in, not by the phase you are moving into, for example, the first residents to move are considered to be in phase 2, not phase 1 (which is the phase they will be moving into).

Is it possible that these dates could change?

Yes. It is anticipated that the first phase of building will start in October 2013, however, it is always a possibility that the timing of phases could change at any point.
